

Just think of it, a Thousand Pairs of Shoes an Hour

W. L. DOUGLAS MAKES & SELLS 18 PAIRS OF HIGH GRADE SHOES EVERY MINUTE OF EVERY WORKING DAY

W. L. Douglas shoes are the most popular shoes on the market, and are worn by more men in this country than any other make.

Because in the selection of the materials, the shaping of the models, the workmanship and finish, nothing has been left undone which will add to the style, fit and wear of W. L. Douglas shoes.

Because they require no breaking-in; they are ready to wear the minute you put them on your feet.

Because W. L. Douglas guarantees his shoes will give you more genuine satisfaction for the money than any shoes you can buy.

If you have never worn a pair of W. L. Douglas shoes, it will be well worth your while to call and let us explain why they are superior to other makes. If you have worn these celebrated shoes, you are familiar with their excellent fitting and superior wearing qualities, but it will pay you to call and see the many pleasing styles and patterns designed especially for this season's wear.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith and children of Overton, Texas, arrived in Macon last Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, having left their home at 5 o'clock Friday morning. They came here to spend a few days with Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. I. D. Tyson of Shuqualak, and brother, Mr. J. B. Howze. They crossed the river at Vicksburg and came direct northeast from there. The worst roads they struck were in Winston county, this side of Louisiana, due to the roads being newly worked. The distance traveled was 537 miles. They expect to make better time on their return trip.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Ernest George and Miss Annie Ella Ames honored Miss Elma Pruitt, a bride of next week, with a happiness party. The guests were received by Miss Nancy Cavett, house guest of Mrs. George. Several rubbers of auction were played, after which the guests were invited into the dining room where covers were laid for twelve. The blue bird of happiness was carried out in place and menu cards, nut cups and candle shades. The center piece was a bowl filled with beautiful pink chrysanthemums and fern over which hovered numerous blue birds. The honoree's chair was adorned with tulle and orange blossoms. A menu of three courses in pink and blue color tones was served. Mrs. Julius Cannon was given a blue bird towel and the blue bird candles with a happiness wish were given to the bride, Miss Pruitt, who wore a frock of pink silk marquisette with jet trimmings. Miss Cavett wore blue chiffon with trimmings of French roses and iridescent beads. Mrs. George wore pink carmuse with silver trimmings and Miss Ames wore embroidered net over pink tulle.

Mrs. Holberg Entertains
On Tuesday Mrs. L. F. Holberg entertained with a six o'clock dinner honoring her sister, Miss Abby Woodward. Only the immediate family were present. As soon as all the guests arrived they were invited into the dining room, where covers were laid for fifteen. The yellow and pink color tones were carried out in the six-course dinner. A handsome cluny set over yellow was used on the table and the centerpiece was a vase of beautiful pink chrysanthemums. The whole house was thrown open for the entertainment of the party and was decorated with southern smilax and pink chrysanthemums.

Visitors Honored
Mrs. H. J. Shall entertained most charmingly Thursday afternoon with an informal tea in her home east of Brooksville, in honor of two charming visitors, Mrs. J. D. Weeks of Ackerman, Missa, and Mrs. M. L. Hight of San Antonio, Texas, who are visiting friends and relatives in the county this week.

Mrs. Shall was assisted in cordially welcoming her guests by Mrs. H. H. Shall. In the rooms thrown open for the occasion beautiful autumn flowers in pastel shades were effectively arranged with ferns and other greenery.

Throughout the afternoon exquisite music was enjoyed by all and an elegant plate lunch was served.

Those who had the pleasure of being numbered as guests at this lovely affair were intimate friends of the honoree.
